2024 180 Medical College Scholarship Program APPLICATION INFORMATION

About 180 Medical

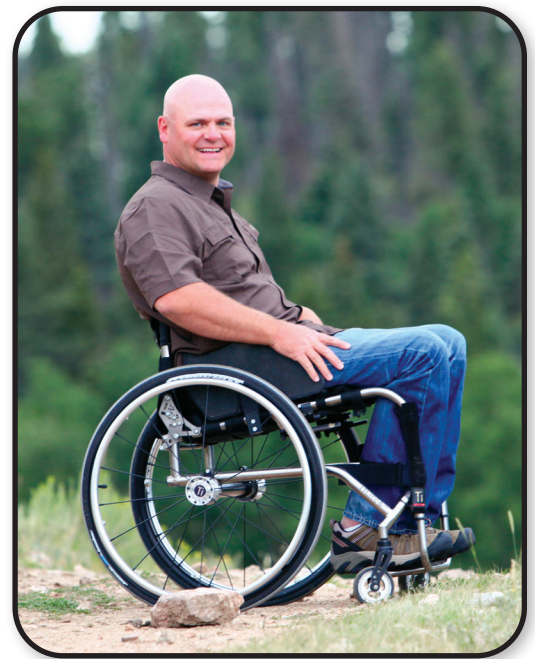

180 Medical is one of the leading providers of catheters, ostomy products, and incontinence supplies in the United States. 180 Medical aims to offer high-quality products paired with unparalleled customer service.

Meet Todd

In 1994, Todd Brown was injured in a motocross accident, leaving him paralyzed from the chest down. After rehab, he faced new challenges like constant urinary tract infections (UTIs) and dealing with medical supply companies who cared more about making money than truly helping him.

Fortunately, Todd's new friends in the wheelchair racing circuit introduced him to advanced catheters designed to reduce the risk of UTIs. After that, his health did a total 180° turnaround. He had more energy without having to fight off infection, and he didn't have to waste time washing and reusing catheters. He realized others could be dealing with similar challenges, and that's when he decided to create a medical supply company that could really help people.

For over two decades since Todd founded 180 Medical, we've been fully dedicated to helping turn lives around with superior products and compassionate customer service.
